BOKER TREE BRAND KNIVES QUALITY STORY

The name Boker Tree  Brand is one of the oldest and most respected in the field of pocket knives. This excellent reputation has been created and maintained by meeting the continuing need for pocket knives of higher-quality, and improved performance.

We are specialists . . . pocket knives have been our business since 1837.

Boker Tree Brand knives are made of the finest cutlery steel, but this is only the beginning of our quality story. The most important ingredient is provided by our master craftsmen for it is their skill, experience, and dedication that makes possible pocket knives of superior quality.

Fine tooling and the expert fitting of each and every component are essential to insure that blades open smoothly, remain firmly in position and fold back at the right pitch to lie flat in the handle. Great care and skill are required to produce expert assembly and permanent alignment.

When the Boker Manufacturing Co., was purchased by J. Wiss & Sons Co., the knowledge and skill of two companies known the world over for their high standards of quality and product excellence was combined.

This joining-together gives assurance that you, our customers are provided with cutting tools that enable you to do a more professional job every time . . . this we guarantee.
